II. Parenting Time Schedule

A. Residential Time With Each Parent

The Custodial Parent is: Joint

Under the schedule set forth below, each parent will have parenting time with the minor children in the approximate percentages stated below:

Mother: 50%

Father: 50%

B. The Parents Agree to the Following (check all that apply):

(x) The parents shall make genuine efforts to refrain from arguments concerning visitations. Such arguments undermine the parents' relationship with the minor children and burden the minor children with the guilt of responsibility for such friction. The parents shall endeavor to cooperate with the minor children with the goal of reducing the strife and confusion surrounding the minor children when parents have elected to divorce. It is beneficial that the minor children experience affectionate care from both parents, and both of the parties hereto acknowledge that parenting time exists primarily for the benefit of the minor children.

(x) Both parties shall be diligent in having the minor children ready with the necessary belongings and available at the appointed times and the transporting party shall be prompt in picking up and delivering the minor children, provided, however, that the transporting parent for visitation shall have a grace period of thirty (30) minutes for pick-up and delivery if both parties live within a distance of fifty (50) miles from each other. If the one way distance to be traveled is in excess of one hundred (100) miles, the grace period shall be sixty (60) minutes. Repeated violations by either parent shall be cause for granting a modification of the custody order either by changing custody or curtailing visitation, as the case may be.

(x) In the event that the either of the minor children develop a serious illness or injury while visiting with one parent, that parent shall promptly inform the other parent of the minor child's condition. Elective surgery shall be performed on the minor child only after both parents have consented to the same. Emergency surgery necessary for the preservation of life or to prevent a further serious injury or condition may be performed without the other parent's consent, provided, however, that if time permits, the other parent shall be consulted and, in any event, he or she shall be informed as soon as possible.

(x) If either parent decides to relocate more than fifty (50) miles away from the other parent's home, the moving parent will give the other parent written notice of the intent to relocate no less than sixty (60) days prior to the date of moving.

(x) Neither party shall consume alcohol or illegal drugs and then operate a motor vehicle when the minor children are in his or her custody.

(x) The parent in whose care of the minor children will be responsible for supervising and assisting in any schoolwork immediately due and for any activity scheduled for the minor children. The parents agree to give each other reasonable notice of any activities scheduled during the other parent's custodial time with the minor children. The parent who has custodial time with the minor children will be responsible for observing the minor children's regularly scheduled lessons, activities and sporting events.

C. Parenting Time

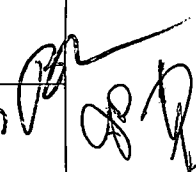

During the term of this parenting plan the parties agree as follows: They shall share custody of the minor children evenly with a month on/month off schedule beginning on August 1, 2016, with the Father having the children. The parent that does not have the children for the month will have them every other weekend and every other Wednesday. For example for the month of August, Mother will have the minor children with her on Friday, August 12, 2016, from the time school ends until Monday, August 15, 2016, when she drops the minor children off at school. She would have the minor children from Wednesday, August 17, 2016, when school ends until she drops them off at school on Thursday, August 18, 2016. She would then have the minor children with her again on Friday, August 26, 2016, from the time school ends until Monday, August 29, 2016, when she drops the minor children off at school. She would have the minor children from Wednesday, August 31, 2016, when school ends, and her month with the minor children would begin on September 1, 2016. The every other weekend and alternate Wednesday schedule for the Father would take place in September and the parties will alternate months thereon.

If for whatever reason school is not in session on any of the return days, then the minor children would be returned to the other parent's residence no later than 9:00 a.m.

If the Court considers an Adjustment to Income under this section, then the Court must also consider whether this Adjustment to Income is in the best interest of the child(ren) in this action.

Adjustment may be considered only for children who meet ALL FIVE of the following requirements:

- A. The parent is legally responsible for the qualified child (Stepchildren do not qualify);
- B. The qualified child lives in the parent's home;
- C. The parent is actually supporting the qualified child;
- D. The qualified child is not subject to a preexisting child support order; and
- E. The qualified child is not currently before the court to set, modify or enforce child support.

Adjustment for other QUALIFIED children, pursuant to five factors listed above, will display below on Lines 11 - 14. Children included in that adjustment appear on Line 10.

CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE E
Deviation (Special Circumstances)

Schedule E - Deviations and Special Circumstances
A. For each section completed, calculations for monthly amounts (annual amounts in certain areas) will automatically display in the appropriate fields. Deviations on this form were entered on the Data Entry Form; to make changes to these amounts, return to that form.
Low Income Deviation The Court or Jury has discretion to allow or not allow the noncustodial parent to receive a Low Income Deviation that will reduce the Presumptive Amount of Child Support. If Low Income Deviation does not apply in this case, fields in this section will be blank or equal to zero.
Weighing Considerations Based Upon Sufficient Evidence: When considering a Low Income Deviation, please read the statute at O.C.G.A. §19-6-15(i)(2)(B) or review the User Guide for the appropriate criteria for this deviation. In weighing the income sources and expenses of both parents, and taking into account each parent's basic child support obligation as adjusted by health insurance and work related child care costs - > Can the noncustodial parent provide evidence sufficient to demonstrate no earning capacity? Or, does his/her pro rata share of the presumptive amount of child support create an extreme economic hardship for such parent? > What will be the relative hardship that a reduction in the amount of child support would have on the custodial parent's household? The needs of each parent? The needs of the child(ren) for whom child support is being determined? The ability of the noncustodial parent to pay child support?
NOTE: Low Income Deviation is entered as a positive number but treated as a subtraction when included with all other deviations. By use of this deviation, court or jury is not prohibited from granting an increase or decrease to the presumptive amount of child support by use of another deviation.					Court or Jury Allowable Deviations Only the Court or Jury may enter an amount under column (c) or (d).
<input type="checkbox"/>	A check mark will display in this box, if a Low Income Deviation has been requested.	(a) Mother	(b) Father	*(c) Mother	*(d) Father
1a.	Enter "Proposed Low Income Deviation amount" will display AS A POSITIVE NUMBER under noncustodial parent's column. Amount will be used unless Line 1b applies.	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00
1b.	>If amount in Line 1a will make the final child support obligation less than the minimum order amount allowed when Low Income Deviation is granted, new deviation amount will display in Line 1b and will be used in calculations. >If entry in Line 1a results in amount equal to or greater than the minimum order allowed, amount in Line 1a will automatically be used in the calculations.	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00
<input type="checkbox"/>	DISCRETIONARY CHECK BOX FOR COURT OR JURY ONLY: Check mark will display in this box, if discretion has been applied. Use to exclude or change deviation amount that displays in Line 1a. "Discretionary amount allowed by Court/Jury" displays AS A POSITIVE NUMBER under noncustodial parent's column.
Explanation for Requesting a Low Income Deviation: An explanation as to why the noncustodial parent should be granted a Low Income Deviation displays here. (Questions at Boxes B, C and D must also be answered for this deviation.)
Specific and Non-specific Deviations - High Income and Other Amounts The amount of any requested deviation must display in the noncustodial parent's column. Only amounts listed in the noncustodial parent's column will affect the final child support calculation.
2(a).	High Income - Combined Adjusted Income of the parents that is greater than $30,000/month will automatically display here for the court/jury to consider.	$ -
Instructions for this section: Requested deviation amounts will display as a "positive (+)" number for an upward deviation or as a "negative (-)" number for a downward deviation. Amounts that display in Lines 2(b)-10 do not represent monthly expense amounts, but rather they represent amounts you want the court to consider as requested deviations from the Presumptive Amount of Child Support. The Specific and Non-specific Deviation section does not represent a financial affidavit.		(a) Mother	(b) Father	*(c) Mother	*(d) Father
